Module – Command and Control

Overview

Students will be able to explain the leadership principles of command and control and how they can be put into effect in their daily work.

Exercise: Discuss in small groups how will you ensure that Command and Control is successfully practiced at work. Provide practical, concrete examples of how you will do this. Have each group present their examples to the class.

Consider:

Trust

Leader's intent

Pushing authority down to those with the information to solve problems

Communication
